TO BUILD AEROPLANES

Alexandria Gets New Industry for the Building of Sea Planes and "Birds of the Air."

The Briggs Aeroplane Company is the name of a new business concern which has just located in this city for the purpose of manufacturing aeroplanes and seaplanes. The large brick building on the east side of St. Asaph street, opposite of what was the Robert Portner Brewery, has been secured for use and preliminary work is already under way, although it is being held back somewhat due to the difficulty experienced in obtaining the necessary skilled labor.

The company was organized by Mr. Blaine Elkins, of West Virginia, and Mr. A. W. Briggs, of Washington. Work has been started on three or four machines and it is hoped to get one or two out within the next month. Both land and water planes will be manufactured, one type of which will be designated as a flying boat and another which will be known as a regular sea 'plane.

It is expected that the new enterprise will bring quite a large number of skilled mechanics to the city when it gets in full running order.

HUNG IN EFFIGY.

Ohio Clubs Want La Follette Sent to Berlin—Senate Considering What to Do.

Sheboygan, Wis., Oct. 5.—Senator La Follette was hung in effigy on a bridge just outside the city limits early yesterday.

The dummy, which was placarded with the senator's name, was discovered by an automobilist, who notified the sheriff. The figure was removed.

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—Deportation of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette and his supporters through the Allies' lines to Berlin because of their "treasonable utterances" was urged in a resolution received yesterday by Governor Cox from the Executives' Club of Toledo, representing 24 clubs and associations in that city.

A copy of the resolution was sent to President Wilson and to Ohio senators and congressmen with the request that they be entered in the Congressional Record.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Telegrams letters and petitions to senators advocating expulsion of La Follette continue to pile in, although none have been presented to the Senate for two days because the parliamentary situation prevents it. Some of Senator La Follette's friends are said to favor an investigation, believing it would break down the attack and stop the mass of communications.

HINDENBURG TO PEOPLE.

Tells Them to Keep Their Nerves Firm and Eyes on the Goal.

Amsterdam, Oct. 5.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg has made a general reply to the congratulations sent to him on his seventieth birthday, which is published in the German press. It is in the form of an appeal to the German people to "remain united and not trouble about what may happen after the war, because this merely carries discord into our ranks and strengthen the hopes of our enemies.

"Be confident that Germany will get what she needs for her security and that both air and space will be given to the German oaks for their free development," the reply continues. 'Keep your muscles tense, your nerves firm, your eyes on the goal."

COAL STRIKE ENDS.

Workers in Tennessee and Kentucky Will Resume Work.

Knoxville, Tenn. Oct. 5.—The convention of United Mineworkers of America in East Tennessee and Southeastern Kentucky, here yesterday formally ratified an agreement entered into last week in Washington between representatives of the union and coal operators of the district. About 16,000 to 18,000 men will resume work. The convention strongly expressed its loyalty to the American government and condemned the I. W. W. as an "illegitimate organization trying to harass the government in the successful prosecution of the war."

RAID GERMAN PAPER.

Publishers and Editors of Freie Zeitung Charged With Seditious Publications.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 5.—Agents of the federal government yesterday seized the publishing plant in this city of the New Jersey Freie Zeitung, a widely read German language newspaper, and arrested its two proprietors and three editors on charge of publishing seditious and treasonable articles. The five men—Benedict and Edwin S. Prieth publishers, and William von Katzler, Frederick J. Hartmann and Henry Waechter— were arraigned in $5,000 bail each for a hearing October 16. Agents of the government are in charge of the plant.

The Freie Zeitung, which was founded in 1858 by the father of the present owners, had been under surveillance of the government for several months, and September 26 the publishers were notified by the Post-office Department to show cause why their paper should not be barred from the mails. Benedict Prieth was to have appeared in Washington tomorrow to make a statement to Postmaster General Burleson, and it is not known what effect today's action will have on this phase of the case.

After their release on bail the publishers issued a statement in which they said they always had been loyal to the United States and denied having published treasonable articles.

GETS SENATE ACTION

Boston Man Has Chance to Show Secret Power Method.

The Senate, at the suggestion of the committee on patents, late last evening, decided to agree with the House and give Inventor Garabed T. K. Giragossian, of Boston, a chance to make good on his secret method for utilizing free energy. The demonstration is to be made before the Secretary of the Interior and a committee of distinguished scientists.

The inventor declares that his invention will so enormously increase the power of ships and aeroplanes that through its use the war can soon be brought to an end.

"I have an invention," said Giragossian yesterday, "which will send locomotives and steamship engines to the scrap heap and make possible aeroplanes compared with which the present ones are mosquitoes."

Giragossien claims he has found a method of harnessing free energy in the air and making it work more efficiently and economically then steam or electricity.

It was found necessary to amputate the right arm of Everett C. Gillum of 1110 Queen street, who was injured in the accident which occurred on the Southern railroad, near Shipman, Wednesday morning. The Red Cross Refreshment Corps desires to thank the wholesale merchants who contributed hams and olives and also the eighty friends of Company G who gave boxes of lunch thus enabling the ladies of the Corps to provide not only a good supper for the soldiers on the train but a most attractive noon lunch, served in the Young People's building. The box of oranges from Whitestone & Clark, with Velvet ice cream sent through the firm of Gibson & Company and cakes from the Havener and National Biscuit Company, made up a much appreciated desert. Besides the above were boxes of cigarrettes from Lipps Bros., and Jas. Lucas. Each lunch box was supplied with cake and fruit from the soldiers' retail merchants friends. Those of the soldiers who were not at the noon lunch had their fruit and cigarrettes given to them on the train, one friend bringing two bushels of apples up from Occoquan for the journey. In addition to the above each soldier was presented with an outfit of needles, darning cotton and thread from the members of the Refreshment Corps.

FLEET OF 20,000 PLANES.

Aviators in Training in This Country and Europe to Man Them all Next Year.

Washington, Oct., 5.—Work is in progress on practically all of the 20,000 airplanes appropriated for by congress to carry the war to the Hindenburg line. Hundreds of American aviation students are already in all the allied countries completing their training.

In addition to the machines being constructed in this country a vast number are being manufactured in Europe to meet immediate demands of the American field forces.

Thousands of men are training to fly on the government fields in America. As soon as they learn they are sent abroad. The first all-American airplane, equipped with the famous liberty motor, will be sent overseas in a "reasonable time." America will have every known type of fighting machine—the training airplane, the fast scout plane, and the powerful dynamite-carrying battle plane of the Caproni type. These giant air dreadnoughts will be used to drop tons of high explosives behind the German lines.

These and other important statements were made by Secretary of War Baker yesterday in summarizing the accomplishments to date of the United States in aviation.

Shoots Himself While on Auto Ride With Young Woman.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 5.—Gerald F. Du Pont, aged 22 years, nephew of the powder manufacturer of Wilmington, Del., and New York city, committed suicide here yesterday after leaving the hospital, where he had been for several days suffering from a nervous breakdown.

The tragedy occurred on a state highway near the city while he was out riding in an automobile with Miss Marian Browning, the daughter of George E. Browning, a brother of John M. Browning, the gun inventor.

Giving as an excuse that he desired to leave the automobile before turning around to leave for the city, young Du Pont stepped out of the car and walked back a few paces and then, drawing a new pistol from his pocket placed it to his head and fired. The bullet passed through his head.

DEMANDS FULL QUOTAS

Local Boards Must Furnish Men for Those Temporarily Discharged.

Richmond, Oct. 5.—Temporary discharges of men for military duty will not serve to relieve boards of the necessity of accounting for the full number of men assigned to the several districts. That number of men will have to be sent, regardless of exemptions. An order from Provost Marshal Crowder bearing on this point was received yesterday by Governor Stuart for transmission to the local boards, being as follows:

"Local boards will not be given credit on quota for men who have temporary discharges. If the temporary discharges do not expire until after the sending of the first quota such temporary discharges are tantamount to excusing the holders thereof from service as members of this quota, inasmuch as local boards must furnish full quota for days named. In such circumstances other men will have to be sent to camp who would not, except for these facts, belong in first quota. Great care should be exercised, therefore, in granting temporary discharges.

"AN EYE FOR AN EYE."

British Will Act Upon Law in Pentateuch in Dealing With Germany.

London, Oct. 5.—Speaking with the authority of a member of the War Cabinet, Lieutenant-General Smuts, former commander of the forces in German East Africa, in an address yesterday to the presidents of the chambers of commerce of the United Kingdom, said the government had been reluctantly forced by recent air raids on London and other English cities to apply the maxim of "an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth," and carry out an air offensive on an unprecedented scale against German cities.

The total air losses in London last month, General Smuts said, was fifty-one persons killed and 247 injured. "During the first nine months of the year," General Smuts continued, "the losses from air raids were 191 persons killed and 749 wounded, as against 487 Killed and in the metropolitan police area."

SUICIDE HEAVILY ARMED.

Body of Dead Man Identified as That of W. Rutledge, Oakland, California.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—The body of a stranger who shot himself near Kenner, a suburb of this city, early this week, was identified yesterday as the man who last Sunday left three envelopes containing $820 with Rev. G. H. Cornelson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, here, and disappeared before his identity could be learned. One of the envelopes also contained a note, reading:

"Spend this money as honestly as it was earned."

wounded, as against 487 killed and found two revolvers fifty cartridges, $115 in cash and a silver watch. An identification tag on the man's coat bore the name, "W. Rutledge, Oakland, Cal."

MEETING OF TRUSTEES

Two Public School Teachers Resign And Several Others Petition for Increases in Salaries.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board was held last night. Nine of the trustees were present. The business, in the main, was of a general nature.

W. W. Arbuckle, recently elected a teacher in the High school, sent in his resignation, which was accepted; as was also that of Mrs. Cora L. Kelly. Both have secured positions in Washington.

A number of teachers sent petitions to the board asking increases in their pay.

Most of the time the board was in session was consumed in interchanging of opinion as to how the school officials were to meet conditions which now confrnt them. The problem is serious from the fact that teachers can, under the present order of things, obtain better salaries in other avocations.

After the matter had been thoroughly threshed, it was ordered that the City Superintendent of Schools procure teachers temporarily or until the board can elect qualified persons to take the places of those who have resigned or are about to do so.

During the discussion it was stated that some of the teachers had been tendered more lucrative postions in Washington, but after having signed contracts with the school board, they had had determined to serve in the school system notwithstanding the fact that the board can not see its way clear to increase their pay.

CHARGED WITH MUTINY.

Pickets Serving Sentence at Occoquan in a Free for all Fight.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Charges of mutiny and rioting at Occoquan prison were filed yesterday against the eighteen Woman's Party militants serving sentences for picketing the White House. The militants responded by charging Acting Superintendent Tweedale and Matron Herndon with inciting fifty negro women prisoners to riot against the pickets. Both charges were the upshot of a free for all fight between pickets, Tweedale, Mrs. Herndon and the negroes over the removal of Mrs. Margaret B. John, one of the "pickets," to a hospital. The pickets demanded the right to summon counsel on the point. Tweedale demurred and the fight ensued. The suffragists were roughly handled, one or two being knocked down.

Tweedale said the treatment was necessary to control them. Occoquan already is under investigation by the board of charities, and Superintendent Whitaker is under temporary suspension as a result of alleged bad prisoner conditions charged by the pickets.

Twenty-Five Thousand Nurses and Workers, About to Go to France, March Down Fifth Avenue.

New York, Oct. 5.—The first great Red Cross war parade ever held in the United States marched down Fifth Avenue 25,000 strong yesterday. The marchers were nurses and Red Cross workers about to leave for the front in France.

Colonel William Hayward was grand marshal. Hundreds of nurses and hospital workers brought their knitting and plied their needles for the soldiers as they waited or marched. Thousands waved flags and cheered the parade with the same spirit shown when New York said good-by to its militia regiments off for the first step of their journey to France.

STREET CAR TURNS OVER.

One Killed and Twelve Injured When Brakes Refuse to Work.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 5.—One negro was killed and twelve white persons injured, several seriously, when a Stone Mountain car turned over in Decatur yesterday morning. The car was inbound for Atlanta with about fifty passengers. The accident occurred o na steep grade and sharp curve near Agnes Scott College. It is reported that the brakes failed to work on the grade, and the car overturned when it attempted to round the curve at a high rate of speed.

CAUGHT IN THE BARRAGE

Germans Suffer Fearful Losses by British Drive in Flanders Yesterday—Many Are Captured.

London, Oct., 5.—The Germans gave up their hopeless counter-attacks against the newly won British position in the Passchenale ridge sector early today, Field Marshal Haig reported. The British were left in undisputed control of the territory won in the drive of yesterday.

London, Oct. 5.—Thousands of prisoners have been taken by the British in the new drive against the Germans which was begun yesterday morning east of Ypres in Flanders. All the objectives of the British were won, including positions characterized by Field Marshal Haig's report from headquarters last night as of "great importance."

Everywhere the British have done splendidly in one of the most pretentious offensives attempted on this front. The attack was launched under heavy clouds and with a mist following a night drizzle.

An unusual feature of the battle was that near Zonnebeke three German divisions which had been ordered to retake positions captured by the British last week were caught in the British barrage as they were preparing to advance and thousands were slaughtered, and thousands taken prisoners.

The British casualties have been exceedingly light.

Washington, Oct. 5.—American Army officers have been watching with intense interest the situation on the western front, which apparently is reaching a climax in the great drive launched yesterday by the British.

From the many reports indicating the development of some important movement, coupled with the continual futile attacks of the Germans along the British front, some military observers here have become convinced that the Teutons were covering a great withdrawal of their line.

Some observers are to be found here who believe that the German army spirit generally is badly shattered. In support of this they cite the continual peace cry in Germany; the expressions of prisoners captured by the Allies; the youth of prisoners and the repeated failures of German attacks during the last few weeks to make any impressions on the British and French fronts.

In view of these developments officers believe a definite ascendancy has been established by the Allies in the morale of their armies. They regard that condition as forecasting complete victory.

There have been indications that the Allied commanders have been intent upon the destruction of the morale of the German soldiers as much as upon forcing their way forward in recent battles. The lavish expenditure of artillery ammunition in which they have engaged steadily for months may have been designed largely to shake the nerves of the men among whom the shells were falling day and night.

CZERNIN PEACE PLAN.

Austro-Hungarian Foreign Ministers' Speech Enthusiastically Approved.

Amsterdam, Oct. 5.—German and Austrian press is giving enthusiastic approval yesterday to the speech of Count Czernin, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in which he outlined Austria's peace terms. The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger says: "The principal ideas expressed by Count Czernin are undoubtedly similar to those of the German government." The Vienna Neue Freie Presse says: "Count Czernin's speech was in reality a loose sketch of a peace treaty which requires practically nothing more than subdivision into articles and paragraphs to give it legal form." Amongst the main points insisted upon by Count Czernin were no forcible conquests, disarmament and freedom of the seas. He declared that Austria-Hungary, while ready to make peace on this basis now, reserved the right to change her attitude should the allies insist upon war to the finish and the dismemberment of the Austro-Hungarian empire. He also declared that the central empires are able to continue the war as long as the allies, and that Austria's military and food situation would be better a year hence than it is now.

SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS.

We notice in our exchanges that school boards in neighboring cities are up against a serious proposition in consequence of the scarcity of teachers. Many have resigned in order to accept more lucrative positions, and it is a difficult matter to secure others to fill their places. The present conditions in the country have caused a sharp advance not only in the necessaries of life, but in salaries, and persons who a few years ago were content with comparatively meagre pay are compelled, by the order of things, to seek places which command more satisfactory wages. Laborers are receiving double the amount they secured a short time ago, and even with the greatly advanced scales it is almost impossible to secure help, as the demand is far greater than the supply.

The school teacher is naturally forced to look around and secure if he or she can, positions more remunerative than that of teaching school.

A meeting of the School Board of this city was held last night at which the resignations of two teachers were received. Petitions from a number of others for increased pay were received. It was stated that other teachers would probably resign in the near future.

The Alexandria School Board is up against a serious proposition. The estimates for the new school year have been made and Council has met the same by making the necessary appropriation. The teachers have signed contracts, and it was hoped all things would proceed satisfactorily. But there are ominous signs in the sky.

Alexandria has expended a considerable amount of money during the past few years in its public schools. New buildings have been erected, teachers' salaries increased, and every reasonable movement for increasing the efficiency of the schools has been inaugurated. It is unfortunate, almost at the beginning of the new school year, that the board is made to face perplexing conditions.

DON'T FAIL TO REGISTER.

The registrars in the four wards of the city will be prepared tomorrow to enter the names of voters heretofore unregistered. In order to vote at the election next month suffragans must have their names on the lists which will be turned over to the officials at the polls.

While there will be no formidable opposition to the candidates recently nominated by the democrats, it is the duty of every member of the party to cast his ballot. The reason is obvious, and there is no need for the Gazette to recapitulate what it has often said upon the eve of an election.

We will, however, repeat a warning often given in this connection. Virginia on one occasion since the civil war cast her electoral vote for a republican for President, and in our city many years ago the dominant party was defeated by apathy upon the part of members of the organization.

Thoroughness is essential in anything we do. There should be no suspicion of lukewarmness in a state or community when voters are called to select candidates for official positions.

As was observed this summer, our city officials have long ago shown themselves to be the right men in the right places. Hence they will have a walkover. The democratic party has for over half a century proven to be the organization which should govern the Old Dominion, and the good sense of the great majority in the state has kept that party in power. It will, of course, be continued, but let all vie to swell the majority for the nominees.

ANTI-GERMAN PLEDGE.

The following "pledge" is being circulated in Washington among Senators and Representatives in Congress, business and professional men by the American Defense Society, 303 Fifth avenue, New York City.

In view of the repulsive and abhorrent character that this war has revealed in the people of Germany, as manifested in the ruthless conquest of smaller nations, "dirty," fighting, and the robbery, rape, and murder of helpless noncombatants, I hereby declare:

That I hold the German people responsible for the brutal and cruel government that they have created and admiringly support;

That I desire to have no further relations with the people of Germany;

That I will not condone any of the crimes of Germany and the Germans;

That I insist upon the punishment of Germany in the form of indemnities to France, Belgium, and Serbia, the return of Alsace-Loraine to France, and the permanent retention by the allies of all the former colonies of Germany.

That I am opposed to opening the markets of America to the products of Germany for the next 100 years;

That so far as may be practicable I will buy and use no German-made goods during the next twenty years.

This is all wrong, and diametrically opposed to the spirit of President Wilson's recent address to the people of the world. We have no resentment to show to the people of Germany, but are at war with an unreasonable and cruel dynasty which has forfeited the respect of the civilized world. We cannot help feeling sorry for the people of the Fatherland who are being sacrificed daily in the futile attempts of the Kaiser and his war lords, who have bankrupted their country and caused the slaughter of millions of their subjects, to perpetuate an autocracy which is at present being shaken to its foundation.

The war is being waged upon Kaiserism, not upon the German people, the great mass of whom would rejoice to see the war cloud disappear.

LEX TALIONIS.

As the Baltimore Sun observes, it is easy for us over here to criticize the reported determination of the British Government to make reprisals for German air raids. If we had suffered as the English people have from this shameful Prussian warfare on women and children and other noncombatants; if we had been visited night after night by these demons of the skies; if we had seen our relatives and friends struck down in their homes by these assassins of the Kaiser; if we had seen hundreds of little children maimed or slaughtered for the benefit of a despotism which, as Mr. Roosevelt put sit, "has reduced savagery to a science," our hearts would doubtless cry aloud for vengeance quick and complete, and we would not care very much how we secured it.

But we must remember we are fighting German soldiers, not German women and children. And it is not at all improbable that the Kaiser would be glad to have German hate revived by the slaughter of women and Children, to have the German people aroused again to fury just as they are beginning to be inclined to peace.

"Our Boys."

Editor Gazette:

The ones that were selected for service were cited to appear at camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., September 19th, and on that day the 35 or more young men selected reported at the city hall, brave young men as they were, with sad and broken hearts but smiling faces. Without the aid of music without an escort of citizens, without a military escort, and more yet, without a lunch furnished by the red cross. Yes, these brave sons had an escort—the examining board. These boys were met at the station by their wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts who bid them good cheer.

Now, on the other hand, we have company G, or better known as the Alexandria Light Infantry. When they received orders to report at Anniston, Ala., our Alexandria paper got busy, automobiles were dispatched to St. Asaph for music, our merchants were requested to close their places of business and act as an escort. The Boy Scouts did their part. The Red Cross served a midday lunch, also furnished a box lunch for the trip and now there is a move on foot to furnish this company with many good things. This should be. But why the distinction by our good citizens between a number of selected men who will make good soldiers and a company of volunteer men who are good soldiers?

FEDERAL AGENTS BUSY

Full Inquiry Will Be Made of Alleged "Protection" Case.

The Richmond Journal says secret service agents are continuing their investigations into the charges made to them by B. F. Braddy, of Washington, N. C., to the effect that he was promised immunity in bringing liquor to North Carolina. Just how far Braddy's statements accord with the facts has not yet been definitely ascertained. His signed statement, making the charges, is in the hands of the local agents.

Braddy stated that J. F. Tayloe told him that he was formerly connected with the finance committee of the United States senate under Senator Simmons. If this is true or whether Tayloe was ever in any way connected with a national committee or not is not known, of course, beyond the statement made by Braddy. Mention of Senator Simmon's committee was made by Braddy himself, it was pointed out by the secret service agent, and not sponsored by the secret service men themselves. It is a part of the statement given by Braddy.

While the department of justice is making a thorough investigation of the case, nothing has been brought out to show that Tayloe could wield any influence with any member of the senate in regard to liquor shipments. Beyond the statement of Braddy that Tayloe told him he was formerly connected with Senator Simmons' committee the secret service men have nothing that in any way connects any of the members of the national body with the case.

It was because Braddy mentioned this in connection with his statement that he believed himself immune that the officers determined upon a full investigation. It is the general belief that Braddy thought to exonerate himself by mentioning Tayloe's former connection with the senate committee and that probably the mention of Senator Simmons' committee believed he could frighten off the officers.

She Wants to Join the Marines

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—A shiny new barber equipment, bay rum, witchhazel and a female barber are all at the service of Uncle Sam—if he wants them.

Inspired by female patriots who are serving their country, Mrs. Sadie A. Kitchen, at present employed in a local barber shop, today applied for enlistment in the United States Marine Corps here, but has not yet been accepted. Her case has been referred to Washington for final action.

So far, no women have enlisted in the Marine Corps, and men of all trades who serve in special capacities must first go through regular military training. However, Mrs. Kitchen believes that "battalions of death," "ambulance drivers" and navy yoewomen are sufficient precedents to influence her case.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Official announcement of blanket wage increases to navy yard employes, including Washington, was made yesterday by the Navy Department. The increases average more than 40 cents a day in the skilled trades, while in some cases the lower ratings receive 80 cents a day increase.

It is very probable that the Committee on Privileges and Elections will conduct an inquiry into the charges of disloyalty brought against Senator Robert M. La Follette. A decision is expected today. It was said yesterday that Senator La Follette will reply for the first time today on the floor of the Senate to the accusations made against him. Up to this time he has kept silent.

Overcoming all parliamentary obstacles, and after a wrangle lasting two weeks, the House yesterday started an investigation of charges made by J. Thomas Heflin, Representative from Alabama, implicating Congressmen in the Benrnstoiff $50,000 slush fund revelation by the State Department. Two resolutions were introduced, and one was present.

An anthracite coal famine threatens the National Capital, according to retail dealers who say that unless a big supply can be obtained within the next few weeks much shivering hereabouts will be the result. Inadequate transportation facilities, due to preference being given to government war needs, are the cause of the shortage, dealers say.

Evidence of a new I. W. W. plot to overthrow the government of the United States, which may result in the immediate internment of 200,000 members of the organization, was yesterday placed in the hands of Federal officials in Chicago. The spirit of the Russian revolution was to be the agency and its carrying out was to be left to Russian aliens in America. Direct connection between the uprising in Russia and the activities of I. W. W.'s in America had undoubtedly been established. It was also learned that plans for a nation-wide strike of garment workers, that is expected to tie up the entire garment industry of the country and cut off the supply of military uniforms for the government, were completed Wednesday night at I. W. W. headquarters.

The United States will prevent South America supplies from reaching neutrals bordering on Germany. This will be done through the United States' control of coal for the ships in this trade. The Exports Administrative Board yesterday issued an order refusing coal to all vessels bound for the border of neutrals whether they are American vessels or not and whether or not their cargoes originate in the United States. The last link in the economic chain which the United States is casting about Germany is thus forged. There is now no possible source from which the neutrals can get supplies unless approved by the United States.

One man was killed and another fatally hurt when their airplane fell 800 feet at the Celina aviation field at Celina, Ohio, late Wednesday. Fred Hellan, of San Francisco, is dead, and James Dibstall, Toronto, Ont., is injured. The two were giving an exhibition flight.
